Tuesday, 09 March 2010

A Michigan State Police Sgt. was charged with drunken driving in Leelanau County early Friday morning.

53 year old Sgt. Monica Ann Bradford was arrested on M-22 around 1am after dispatchers received a call that a middle aged female with glasses was cut off at a local casino and left in a silver or tan SUV. Bradford was caught speeding and weaving in and out of lanes. Bradford failed a field sobriety test. Her preliminary blood alcohol test showed a level of .16. Bradford, who is a desk sgt at the TC post, returned to her job this week. She is scheduled to be arraigned in 86th district court on Friday. The dept says it will wait until the criminal process is over before launching an internal investigation.
